Munch Malone is one seriously inept golfer but that hasn't dimmed his enthusiasm for the game. Now at seventy, Munch, a high handicapper, has drawn some unlikely attention from the afterlife. From on high, two golfers, both quite deceased, have been scouring earth on a quest to find the perfect golfer. But there are so many golfers on so many golf courses that if they are ever to play the game they both loved so much in life, again they need just the right golfer for a grand experiment from the great beyond. And then they find Munch. Target acquired, they settle back into their easy chairs in the great clubhouse in the sky, drinks in hand to watch as their experiment plays itself out down on Terra Firma on high definition television. Of course, meanwhile down on earth, Munch is going about his life, oblivious to the role he is about to play in their game. He's just invested in clubs that once belonged to scratch golfers, his secret strategy for success in the USGA Senior Men's Amateur Championship. But his destiny to win the Open is derailed as Vegas operatives plot to steal his clubs. The escapade romps across the Greenbriars Old White Golf Course and into the hotels underground bunkers as the adventure is spiced up by sexual twists and glocks being drawn on the course. Now it's a battle of wills, both terrestrial and heavenly, to see if Munch's destiny or his ineptitude will reign supreme.

Mastering Skills takes a fresh approach to the teaching of grade-specific skills. Each book uses a wide range of activities to spark students' interest in learning. As students complete the activities, they develop the skills they need to meet academic standards in reading, writing, math, social studies, and science. Both teachers and parents can use the books to introduce new concepts, to assess learning and skill development, and to reinforce familiar knowledge. The versatile activities can be used for individual practice, test preparation, or homework assignments. Complete answer keys are provided. Book jacket.
